

Corporate Social Responsibility Statement

Suffolk Libraries aspires to make positive contributions to the communities we serve. We aim to act responsibly with key principles of:

- Adding value to the community through our service, engagement, and partnerships
- Reducing our impact on the environment
- Supporting our members with their own initiatives
- Enabling our staff to contribute positively to communities using their skills, expertise and local knowledge
- Conducting all our business in an honest and ethical manner.

Our Commitment

We want to make a positive difference through the services we provide, the way we provide them and the way we run our organisation by:

- Providing sustainable benefits for our stakeholders
- Minimising our impact on the environment, both directly and through our work with stakeholders.
- Providing support for staff wellbeing and development
- Ensuring financial due diligence
- Improving the positive impact on the communities we live and work in and reducing any negative impact.
- Developing partnerships in all the communities we serve
- Continuous development of our governance and transparency.
